

PREMIER BRITE WHITE

Our Premier Brite White self-contained, portable, hot water, handwashing sink is redefining what it means to be that model citizen. NSF-certified, code compliance doesn't need to be complicated and this out-of-the-box-ready, versatile sink keeps things simple without sacrificing style. Its compact size is adaptable to all industries, employing a minimal footprint in those high-footprint workspaces.

A one-piece, integrated ABS white countertop, splashguard, and single sink basin with top-fill soap dispenser is all you'll need for point-of-contact handwashing. Your quick-connect tanks are locked away behind white woodgrain cabinets, allowing you to mix and match this model to fit your specific work environment.
